Global Online Safety Survey 2024: Worldwide Parents' and Kids’ Perceptions of Online Safety

What are the risks?

- Misinformation & Disinformation: 70% of teens report experiencing risks.
- Prevalent Content: 57% have seen or heard inflammatory content.
- False Conflicts: 73% have heard or read about conflicts.
- 13-year-olds: 67% have experienced harassment.
- Self-harm: 48% have experienced self-harm.

What challenges are teens facing online?

- Top worries:
  - Sexual exploitation and abuse (58%)
  - Violent extremist content (46%)
  - Graphic violence & gore (27%)
  - Hate speech & threats (20%)
  - Self-harm (16%)

- Top risks experienced:
  - Cyberbullying (42%)
  - Harassment (33%)
  - Cyberstalking (50%)
  - Suicide & self-harm (50%)

Top Risks Experienced by Gender

- Teen Girls: Experienced more sexual risks than boys:
  - 25% vs 19%

Top Risks & Worries Differed Along Gender Lines

- Personal risk:
  - Teen Boys: Top risks included violent extremist content, intimate videos, and hate speech.
  - Teen Girls: Top risks included cyberbullying, harassment, and abuse.

How parents are keeping children safe

- Parents' actions:
  - 87% talk to their children about online risks.
  - 84% have rules for device use.
  - 52% set screen time limits.

- Teen's perception:
  - 72% feel safe online.

Parents and Kids’ Perceptions of Online Safety

- 57% of adults have experienced a risk online in the past year.

Source: Microsoft

Online Safety: 42% because it is more engaging than offline activities.